Weekend Is Quiet

Plano Takes It Easy, But 'Cats Take Title

The long Memorial Day weekend was relatively quiet for some in Plano, while for others, it was an eventful occasion.

Probably the biggest happening during the weekend was Plano High School's come-from-behind win of the regional AAAA baseball title over Spring Branch.

For a time, it looked as though Plano would be forced to forfeit the title to Spring Branch, winner of the first of three games. However, with a lot of luck, dedicated play--and dedicated fans--the Wildcats skunked the Bears in two games, and the complete

The other event of note over the weekend was Ridgeview Memorial Park's annual Memorial Day observance, which featured U.S. Congressman Jim Collins as guest speaker and was held Monday morning.

The Plano Police Dept. reported that despite answering close to 200 calls during the long weekend, all was relatively quiet.

In a brief rundown of police activity in Plano for the weekend, there was one shooting incident, but no serious injuries occurred. There also was one major accident, again with no serious injuries, and 10 minor wrecks.

In other activity, the Plano Police Dept. reported 13 burglaries, one attempted burglary, five thefts and a total of 24 arrests for various offenses.

The Plano CB Radio Club reported that more than 100 motorists and truckers took advantage of their annual Memorial Day Rest Stop, which was located near the southwest corner of FM 544 and the west service road of Central Expressway.

Serving free donuts, cookies, coffee and soft drinks, the Rest Stop operated from 4 p.m. Friday until midnight last night.

No violent deaths occurred in Plano over the weekend, but across the nation, the Memorial Day weekend traffic death toll climbed toward the predicted levels. In addition, drownings increased at an alarming rate.

Among the drowning victims was Robert Shingler Talmadge, son of Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga. The younger Talmadge, in his mid 20s, drowned Monday in Lake Lanier north of Atlanta.

A National Safety Council spokesman said the final traffic death toll should fall about midway in the council's estimate that from 400 to 500 persons would die in traffic accidents.

Massive traffic jams clogged Southern California highways Monday night as hundreds of thousands of motorists returned from weekend outings at beaches, the mountains and sundry parks.

Motorcycle accidents helped swell the traffic toll and boating and swimming accidents boosted the overall holiday death count.

A United Press International count showed 387 persons had died on the nation's highways since the holiday period began at 6 p.m. local time Friday. The period ended at midnight local time Monday night.

A breakdown of accidental deaths:

Traffic 387 Drownings 180

Planes 14 Other 58 Total 639

California reported 46 traffic fatalities, Texas and Ohio each counted 27, Michigan 23, and Florida and New York each reported 19.

Five states recorded drownings in double figures. California had 19 drownings, Michigan recorded 18, New York 13, Ohio 11 and Texas 10.

One of the worst accidents of the weekend was a plane crash near Carpentersville, Ill., a western suburb of Chicago, which killed five persons—the pilot, his wife, their two children and the pilot's sister.

Trustees Wind Up Weekend

School trustees began preparing for the 1975-76 school year at a weekend study session at Lake Savoy.

The seven-member school board and Superintendent Dr. H. Wayne Hendrick reviewed facility needs of the 114-sq. mi. district and examined issues related to school finance during the all day Saturday and Sunday morning workshop.

Other discussion topics covered during the study session included Texas Education Agency accreditation standards, curriculum and instruction, school district organizational structure, operational policies and the function of the School Board.

School Financing Measure

Senate Bill Best Idea

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — A $602.5 million Senate school finance bill puts the biggest amounts of state aid in places where the biggest education problems exist, according to Lt. Gov.

William P. Hobby.

Sen. Oscar Mauzy, D-Dallas, was so confident the Senate would approve the bill today he spent much of Monday afternoon in the House chamber trying to convince representatives to go along with the plan and avoid sending the school finance issue to a conference committee.

Rep. Dan Kubiak, D-Rockdale, a leading House advocate of school finance reform, said a cursory examination of the bill indicated it was very similar to one he proposed, and said he is considering asking representatives to adopt the Senate bill when it reaches the House.

"It appears this is probably the best compromise plan for the governor's people, for the Senate and for the House," Kubiak said.

"It's better than anything we'd get out of a conference committee," he said. "If it goes to conference, they'll come out at 11:59 the last day with some pile of trash, and we'll have to take it or leave it. I can't gamble like that."

The lawmakers have only until midnight Monday to agree on school finance and other issues.

Hobby, who is credited with coercing teacher groups and Senate leaders to agree on the compromise plan, said it addresses equalization issues raised in a San Antonio school funding lawsuit several years ago.

"More accurately than has ever been done before, it flows education dollars to education problems," he said. "It is a generous bill that addresses the equalization problems."

The plan unanimously adopted by the Senate Education Committee Monday raises minimum base salaries for teachers at all levels by $1,400 a year for the 1975-76 school year, and by an additional 5 per cent in the 1976-77 school year.

The proposal also calculates local districts' share of the cost of education on the full market value or property within each district, but assures no district would receive less funds next year than it received from the state in the 1974-75 school year.

Local districts will be required to raise an additional $390 million in local revenue during the next two years to keep pace with the higher state funding.

The Senate committee plan increases state funding for maintenance and operation by $310 million, and transportation allocations to local districts by $42 million.

To help resolve inequities between rich and poor districts, the committee recommended $100 million in special equalization funds of up to $70 per student in average daily attendance, and an additional $50 million in compensatory education funds to help train educationally deprived students.

Gasoline Price Hike Seen

Ford Plans Oil Import Tariff Increase

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Ford addresses the nation tonight to blast congressional Democrats for dawdling over energy legislation and to announce another oil import tariff increase—a move certain to boost gasoline prices in time for the summer vacation season.

White House sources said the planned $1 increase in the duty on each barrel of imported crude oil, starting June 1, was intended to spur Congress to prompt passage of a comprehensive energy conservation program.

Officials said the tariff hike would push gasoline prices higher by about 1.5 cents a gallon, and result in added production and distribution costs for a wide range of other petroleum products that ultimately will be paid by the consumer.

Officially, the White House said only that Ford would appear on nationwide radio and television from his Oval Office at 8:30 p.m. EDT for about 10 minutes "to announce his decisions on his energy program in the absence of any congressional action" on the proposals he submitted last January.

Ford levied the first of three planned $1 tariff increases on Feb. 1, saying that resulting price increases would curb domestic consumption and reduce U.S. reliance on foreign oil.

In the meantime, he said, the White House and Congress could negotiate a compromise energy program.

Ford later agreed to postpone the scheduled March and April increases after congressional Democrats said they needed more time to draft their own plan. At the end of April, Ford granted another month-long delay.

Ford aides said Monday the President felt he could wait no longer. One official, maintaining that "Congress has done nothing," said Ford would "harshly criticize" the House and Senate in tonight's speech.

The President chose to act in the midst of a 10-day congressional Memorial Day recess and the night before his departure for a week-long European tour that will include talks with NATO allies in Brussels and with Egyptian President Anwar Sadat.

Democratic leaders promised last week the House would move quickly on an energy bill as soon as the recess ends next Monday. But the legislators still seemed divided after weeks of debate.

Most attention has focused on a bill approved by the House Ways and Means Committee that would raise gasoline taxes 3 cents a gallon next Jan. 1 and to as much as 20 cents a gallon later, if consumption were not reduced.

It also would impose a tax on new cars that use a lot of fuel, and would act to limit oil imports now running at 6.5 million barrels or 273 million gallons a day.

Senate Rejects Utilities Proposal

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The Senate has rejected a House bill creating a strong public utilities commission empowered to regulate all privately-owned utilities, preferring to stick with their version of the measure.

Common Cause lobbyist John Hannah said senators who voted against the bill Monday are "lackeys of the utility monopolies" and warned his group will identify them as such.

The House measure, defeated 19-12 in the Senate, gives a three-member commission regulatory power over privately-owned electric, natural gas and telephone utilities, unless local governments vote to continue their current regulation.

Consumer groups lobbied for the House bill, saying the Senate version is weak. With only a week left in the session, the two measures will have to go to a conference committee to work out a compromise.

But the House bill's chief sponsor, Rep. John Wilson, D-La Grange, said there is little chance for a compromise, saying he prefers no bill to the Senate's version.

Angered by the Senate vote, Hannah said Common Cause and other groups "intend to use all of our resources to tell not only our members but every citizen of this state where each individual public official stood in this fight.

"We will identify them as 'public servants' or 'lackeys of the utility monopolies' and tell why," he said. "Our information will be easy to understand. There will be no misunderstanding about 'vote to reconsider a motion to table,' etc."

Students at Barron Elementary ended a special unit on careers Friday with a Career of their choice, the class ended a week of study which included visits from various representatives from different occupations. Above,

Plano Plays At Ft. Worth

Plano High School will travel to Fort Worth tonight for a 7:30 p.m. game against Arlington Heights in the state schoolboy quarterfinal baseball playoffs.

The playoff game will be played at Clark Field, located in South Fort Worth adjacent to the Tarrant County Junior College campus.

Plano and Fort Worth Arlington Heights are playing a best of three-game series. The second game will be played at Plano Thursday at 5 p.m. and if there is a need for a third game, it will also be played in Plano, at 5 p.m. on Friday.

Fort Worth advanced to the quarterfinal playoffs by beating Dallas Carter 3-0 on Monday night in regional play. Arlington Heights posts a 27-5 record.

Plano advanced to the quarterfinals by beating Houston Spring Branch in a Saturday doubleheader, 1-0 and 3-0.

California Poll

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The California Poll reported today that only 24 per cent of the California public supports the idea of U.S. troops fighting to protect South Korea in case of an invasion by North Korea.

An even smaller minority, 13 per cent, favors U.S. troops fighting in Thailand to defend that government in the event insurgent Communists start a military campaign.

And while the poll found Californians overwhelmingly on the side of Israel in its Middle East disputes with her Arab neighbors, almost half feel the United States should stay entirely out of any Mideast war even if it became clear that Israel could not survive without U.S. help.

Courses Scheduled

Registration is now underway at Richland College Community Services for a variety of summer courses in the Visual Arts and Crafts division.

"Basic Drawing" will cover basic techniques and composition of drawing. Betty Lea is the instructor and the class will be held on Tuesday afternoons from 1 to 4 p.m. beginning June 3 through July 22 at Richland College in Room M130. Fee is $25.

For those with little experience in art, "Beginning Oil & Acrylics" will be taught by William Kyser, Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 10 p.m., beginning May 28 through July 16 at Treemont.

"Beginning Oil Painting" is also for the beginner desiring a studio atmosphere. There are three courses still open, two at Treemont and one at Richland. There is a course from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Tuesdays, and also from 6:30 to 10 p.m., both beginning on June 3. The third course will be on Thursday evenings at Treemont from 7 to 10 p.m. "Figure Painting" is the study of the human figure, its anatomy and construction. Classes begin on Monday, June 2, through July 21 from 6:30 to 10 p.m. at Richland. Jenny Lewis is the instructor.

In addition to classes in drawing-painting, Richland gives the opportunity to try new and ancient forms of art.

"Batik" is an exquisite traditional Indian art which includes drawing designs on material, intricately waxing the fabric, and dyeing the cloth. This six-week course is scheduled for Tuesday afternoons from 1:30 to 4 p.m., beginning June 3 to July 8 at Richland College, Room 120.

"Chinese Calligraphy" requires no previous knowledge of the language. Learning to write Chinese characters with brush will be taught by Hsin-hui Wang. Classes are at Richland, Room B127 on Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., beginning June 5 through July 17, and the cost is $18.

"Printmaking" will be instructed by Jim Robinson and is designed for the beginning student interested in the unique characteristics of relief printmaking. The first class is Wednesday, June 4, from 7 to 10 p.m. at Richland in Room M120. Classes are every Wednesday until July 23 and the fee is $22.

"Art Abodes" enables you to get an "inside" view of art makers by traveling to Dallas artists' studios. This four-week course will be based at Richland College Gym from 7 to 9 p.m. on Thursdays, beginning July 3 - July 24. Aledra Braddell is the instructor and the fee is $10.

"Enameling" enables you to make stunning jewelry, wall plaques, bowls, plates, ashtrays, etc., for your home or friends. Two courses are being offered on Mondays, beginning July 23 through Aug. 4. The first course will be in the mornings, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

For Land Program

Registration Begins

Registration for the second Family Land Heritage Program, honoring families who have owned and continuously operated a farm or ranch for 100 years or more, begins June 1.

Last year 565 families and individuals were honored at ceremonies at the state fairgrounds in Dallas. Twenty families who missed the 1974 deadline have already qualified for 1975.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said applications are available at the county judge's office in all counties that were settled by 1875. He explained that judges in areas of Texas settled after that date did not receive forms. However, if a family in one of these areas thinks they qualify, they may write directly to the Texas Dept. of Agriculture for an application.

"Applicants must use the new forms if they wish to qualify," White.

TDA sponsors the program. Registration deadline is Aug. 15.

White stressed that the land must have been agriculturally productive and owned by family members for 100 years or more. If all the land has ever been rented out, it will not qualify.

Persons must live on and work the land, or, if they live off the historic land, they must actively manage and direct the everyday operation of the farm or ranch. Absentee ownership of land devoted to hunting and timber leases and similar operations will not qualify.

"Last year was our first year for Family Land Heritage, and it was a big one," White said. "We were proud and happy to honor some of the first families of Texas, those who have given so much to Texas agriculture and, therefore, its people, for several generations. This year we hope to do an even better job."

Those who qualify will be honored at appropriate ceremonies in the fall. They will receive a certificate suitable for framing.

Summer Classes Set

Registration for the June semester of summer classes at the Heard Natural Science Museum will close on June 5, according to Lillian Hubbs, Curator of Natural Science. Classes begin on June 10 and end on June 20.

Preschool classes (five and six-year-olds only), "Museum Animals," will be taught by Mary Leberman. Two sections will be offered, each meeting from 10:30 a.m. to noon, with Section I on Tuesday and Thursday and Section II on Wednesday and Friday.

A class for first and second graders, "Web of Life", will be taught by Janet Schramm on Wednesday and Friday from 9 to 10:30 a.m. "Web of Life" for third and fourth grade students will also be taught by Janet Schramm on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9 to 10:30 a.m. Fifth and sixth grade students may also study "Web of Life" on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10:30 to noon. Instructor will be Janet Schramm.

General art classes will be offered to first through sixth grades and will be taught by Sharon LeVasseur on the following schedule: first and second grades, Wednesday and Friday, 9 to 10:30 a.m. or 10:30 a.m. to noon; third and fourth grades, Tuesday and Thursday 10:30 a.m. to noon; fifth and sixth grades, Tuesday and Thursday, 9 to 10:30 a.m.

Tuition is $10 for preschool and $8 for all other classes. There can be no refunds after June 5 and grade levels are the grade just completed. Mrs. Hubbs urges parents to register their children now, as classes are limited to 10 students. To register or for more information call Mrs. Hubbs at 542-5012 or write Heard Museum, Route 7, Box 171, McKinney, Texas 75069.

Harrington Concert Planned

The Plano Civic Chorus, as part of its music concert series will offer a free "Concert in the Park" on Friday, June 13, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Harrington Park Pavilion, 401 West 16th Street.

The Chorus, sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Dept. and the Plano Fine Arts League, and under the direction of Bob Sawyer, will present a variety of music for the listening pleasure of the citizens of Plano.

This will be the last of a series of concerts presented by the chorus this year, with the Chorus beginning rehearsal for its new concert series in the fall.

Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Plano Civic Chorus should call the Plano Parks and Recreation Dept. for more information, 423-4795.

Indian Studies Class Scheduled

Classes will begin on the University of Plano campus in "Red Man's America" through the Continuing Education Division, and registration will continue until May 30.

The six weeks course will be in preparation for the annual field trip to Cherokee, the former Cherokee nation, in Green County, Okla. In-depth study of the five civilized tribes, the Cherokee, Choctaw, Chickasaw, Creek and Seminole, will prepare students taking the course to know and appreciate the history, culture and arts and crafts of these tribes, many thousands of which will live in Oklahoma. (The name Oklahoma means "red man".)

In the fall and winter of 1838-39, the Cherokees were driven from their homes in Eastern and southern United States and pushed along a dreary march westward. Of 16,000 who started the miserable trip more than 4000 died along the way from disease, hunger and exposure.

The march lasted nearly a year and even afterward was known as the "Trail of Tears." Thus, the stage is set each summer at Tahlequah for an evening of intense drama, pageantry and dance wherein unfolds the bittersweet story of the Cherokee.

Famed playwright Kermit Horn of SMU has in the "Trail of Tears", woven a tapestry of words, action and music to stimulate the senses as patrons witness the chronology of the Oklahoma Cherokee, amid the hauntingly beautiful pastoral setting of the outdoor theater at Tsa-La-Gu.

Students will also visit the famed Cherokee village, literally a living page out of history at Tsa-La-Gu, which is only a few miles from Tahlequah. Here they will see all activities of life, art and crafts, food preparation, the game of Stickball, etc. explained to them by Indian students from the village.

Stops will be made at the Museum of the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Okla., the antiquities museum of the Cherokee on the campus of Northeastern College, Gilcrease Museum at Tulsa and the famed Cherokee restaurant where the menu is prepared and served by modern Cherokees.

All students who take this course, or who have had the course during the spring semester at the University are eligible to go on the trip as well as members of their families. Adults who cannot take the course will be given a short preparation shortly before the scheduled time of departure in early July.

Plano Man Ends School At Company

Philip Garlington, Southwestern Life Insurance Co. representative in Plano, recently attended a special advanced school at the company's home office in Dallas.

This was the third in a series of four schools Southwestern Life provides for its career agents over a three-year period.

During the five-day school Garlington studied the coordination of various life insurance and retirement income plans into an over-all family income program.

'Better' Course Scheduled Soon

The Better Persons, Better Parents course will be offered again by Richland College Community Service adult education division, beginning June 9, from 1 to 3 p.m. on Mondays.

The classes on more effective communication and parenting will be lead by Joseph C. Whitner of Pastoral Counseling Associates. He is a member of the American Assn. of Marriage and Family Counselors and the Family Therapy Assn. of Texas.

Whitner has been in practice as a marriage and family counselor in Dallas for seven years. Besides his counseling, Whitner teaches courses on ways of making good lives and relationships even more effective and enjoyable.

"Better Persons, Better Parents will help parents become more skilled in dealing with their children as the factors that make for good emotional growth are understood," Whitner stated. "Most people do the best they can as spouses or parents but often need new tools of understanding and

Quartet Appears This Evening

The Ozark Bible College and Institute Quartet is scheduled to perform at the Bethany Bible Church on May 27 at 7:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend. The quartet is conducting a three week tour in a ten-state area.

The quartet will be directed and accompanied by Bryce Donley, who is an instructor in the music department at the college. Donley holds a Bachelor's and Master's degree from the School of Music, West Chester State University, of West Chester, Pennsylvania. Singing in the quartet are Marty Fleck, Donna Manaraze, Tenderlee Robinson, and Judy Kessler.

The Ozark Bible College and Institute is located near Ozark, Ark. The college offers a Bible major leading to a Bachelor's degree. Four minors are available:

Pastoral Studies, Missions, Christian Education, and Sacred Music.

The program will be preceded by a pot-luck church dinner at 6:30.

FREE HEARING TESTS SCHEDULED FOR PLANO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 29TH

Free electronic hearing tests will be given in Plano on Wednesday, May 28th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome to come in for a free test in Beltone's Mobile Test unit which will be parked at Dallas North Shopping Center, N. Central at 15th St.

Everyone should have a hearing test once a year if they have any trouble at all hearing clearly. Even people now wearing a hearing aid should have a hearing test and find out about the latest methods of hearing correction.

The Mobile Unit is sponsored by Beltone Hearing Aid Service of Dallas, who has been serving the needs of the hearing impaired in Plano for more than 20 years. Dick and Tom Durbin, owners, are pleased to offer this service to the community. The test will take only about five minutes. The Mobile will also be equipped to service those persons already using hearing aids.

Bev Flanagan, licensed hearing aid specialist, will be conducting the tests. If you are unable to get to the Mobile Unit, call Dallas at 363-7510 for an appointment in your home.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21) Carelessness may be a trait of yours at this time. Be sure to use your blinkers.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23) Accept the fact that some people may be impolite drivers this week. Don't get flustered and make mistakes of your own.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23) You may have some children in your car this week. If you do, warn them to behave before you start driving — or have another responsible adult along.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Be content to stay in the background — that driver speeding around you may be headed for trouble.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Mid-week may bring traffic tie-ups. Don't let them make your temper boil over.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22) Are you driving with a clear head? Sort out your personal problems before you get behind the wheel.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21) You may see one of your many friends this week while you're driving. But if you wave at them, be sure you don't take your attention off the car in front of you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Don't skimp at this time. If you're not using the proper octane gas for your car, it could stammer and stall. And that's trouble in traffic.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Warmer weather means more strain on your cooling system. Check your radiator hoses out before they can cause problems.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You may want to be wasteful. Don't do it with gas. Avoid jackrabbit starts.

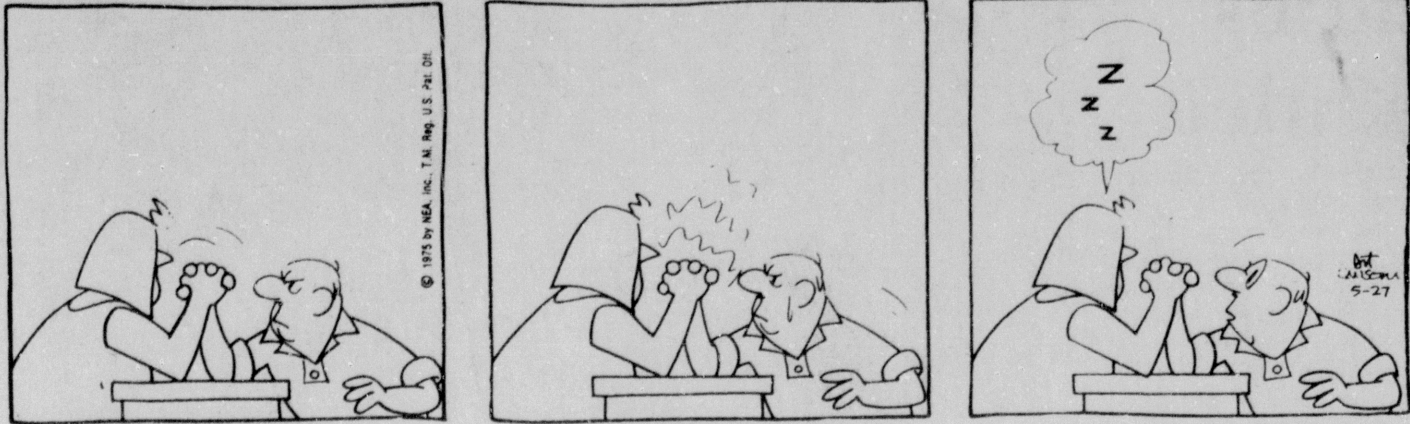

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) You may miss seeing exit signs on freeways or busy streets. If you go by one by mistake, take the next exit. Don't try to make a high-speed last-minute turn.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21) You may want to shop a lot of sales this weekend. Don't break the speed limit getting to them.

Machine oil saves typewriter ribbons

By Polly Cramer

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — Does anyone know a remedy for prolonging the legibility of ribbons on typewriters? I use that "ring" of the pull tab from beer cans for hanging small wall plaques I make. Bend the flexible metal part in under the ring making a snap like loop and then slide a nail through this loop for added strength when hanging larger plaques. — MRS. R.L.A.

DEAR MRS. R.L.A. — Many years ago we had the following Pointer for a "cure" for fading typewriter ribbons: "Machine oil applied on an old typewriter ribbon will renew the dried out ink." — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — When you are ready to store your storm windows check to see if they can be left on for insulation against the summer heat. This is a great help for houses that are air conditioned. This also solves a storage problem. MRS. C.B.S.

DEAR POLLY — We women who work in a bank are making clowns for a children's party with empty adding machine spools such as Mrs. C.S. has. They also would provide a use for leftover knitting yarn such as Elva has and wants to use. Previously we used those packaged candies with holes in the middle for the body so those with leftover yarn and no spools could make that substitution. The spool, or candies, make the body. A styrofoam ball about 1 1/2 inches across is the head and the clown hat is from a paper cup. The face has a round red bead for the mouth and diamond-shaped sequins with bead centers for the eyes. To start roll yarn around a six-inch cardboard about twelve times. Take piece of yarn about 12 inches long and tie this clump of yarn through the middle and run rest of yarn length up through the spool and tie around the middle of another yarn clump for arms and then through the styrofoam and cap and fasten around more yarn that will be cut to make a pompon for the top of the pointed clown hat. This yarn can be pushed through with a crochet needle and it holds all together. Tie off arms and legs so loose ends simulate hands and feet. — THE WOMEN of N.C. BANK.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with the mail order sales organizations that use the "negative option" plan. You sign up for membership in a club that sends you books or records on a regular basis unless you notify them within a specific period that you want to discontinue forthcoming issues. They take advantage of our forgetfulness or neglect in sending this. Sometimes even when the negative card is sent, the next volume or record still comes. When contacted they say your card was not received. I am sure there are many others who agree with me. — SHIRLEY.

DEAR POLLY — I always had a problem when baking cookies. The first cookie sheet full had a tendency to bake too hard on the bottom. Now I have learned from experience to preheat my cookie sheet and I pre-heat the oven and this works great. It is already hot so the cookies do not take as long to bake and are not overdone on the bottom. — PEARL E.

SIDE GLANCES

by Gill Fox

"A lifetime of happiness awaits while they argue over whose turn it is to feed the parking meter!"

For Wednesday, May 28, 1975
ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be careful. You could miscalculate things today. This would deprive you of a goal you're very anxious to realize.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Double-check your sources to make sure information from others is valid. You may be a bit on the gullible side today.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your best course again today is to stay at arm's length from situations that are not your direct concern. Your advice will be neither welcome nor needed.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Tread softly today in areas where your reputation or image are on the line. A thoughtless move will leave a poor lasting impression.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A task you've been postponing because you thought it would be a snap will be tougher the longer you put it off. Do it now.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You're prone to take risks today with things that aren't yours. A friend will be angered if something he values is ruined.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you want your household to run smoothly today, you and your mate will have to decide who the chief honcho is. It's no day for committee rule!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) It's not like you to make excuses to shirk responsibility, but that's just what you're apt to do today. Watch it!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You're still unrealistic regarding how you manage financial resources. Some form of loss is likely unless you change your ways.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) A person who's seeking your advice will not be helped if you sugar-coat your words. Tell it to him hard and straight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) The buck stops with you today. If you made a mistake or an oversight, you'll gain respect by admitting it, even though it's difficult.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Though you yearn for a strong craving to buy something new, resisting the urge will make it easier later when payments come due.

Your Birthday
May 28, 1975

You'll play a more meaningful role this year in management of the affairs of others. Substantial rewards will come to you if your job is well done.

In Memory

A color guard from the First Calvary Division, stationed at Ft. Hood; an honor guard from the Harding Blaine American Legion Post No. 321 in Plano, and a talk by U.S. Congressman Jim Collins was among the highlights of the annual Memorial Day observance at Ridgeview Memorial Park, located north of Plano on Hwy. 75. Congressman Collins was introduced Monday morning by Councilperson Louise Sherrill of Plano, as hundreds of US flags fluttered along Ridgeview's "Avenue of the Flags." (Staff photos by Mike Newman).

Just about everyone would like to have an extension phone somewhere in the house.

But with all the hassles involved—like calling the phone company, placing an order, waiting around for an installer—it hardly seems worth it.

But that's all changed now. With GTE Phone Mart. The hassle-free way of getting an extension phone.

Hassle-free because you actually install the phone, all by yourself. Here's how.

When you want a phone, you come into Phone Mart.

There you'll see all kinds of telephones on display. In dozens of colors and styles for you to browse through. When you find a phone you like, you take it home.

It's that simple. Buy a phone, take it home and plug it in.

You'll never have to wait for a phone company installer again.

After all, you shouldn't have to over-extend yourself just because you want an extension phone.

In Li'l Abner

Politics 'Accidental'

By ANDREW TULLY III NEW YORK (UPI) — If the comic strip Li'l Abner is political, it's an accident, Al Capp says. But political or not, the cartoonist insists it is art.

"All I'm trying to do is raise a laugh," said Capp, who was in town for an exhibit of his creation at the New York Cultural Center. "And politics has provided me with a lot of laughs."

"The job of the cartoonist is to find lunacy and then expose it!" he said.

"But there's no mission. It's just what you do," he said, his mouth curling in the smile that is so familiar on the faces of Dogpatch.

"If you're a cabinet maker," Capp said, "you make cabinets. If you're a satirist, you make fun of people. Providing the laugh is the mission."

"A laugh usually comes from someone else's problems," Capp said, "but not real problems. There are a lot of shootings in my strips, and everybody comes out full of holes and bandages. But nobody's really hurt."

"We get comfort from that," he said, "because this sort of situation is impossible. But when you turn on the TV and see Vietnam on the news — that's real. That can happen, because it is happening. Nobody could laugh about that."

Capp's works on display at the cultural center are paintings on canvas he has done, based on the familiar citizens of Dogpatch.

"It's art," he said flatly. "Not only in the overall genre, but in the very execution of the drawings."

"The work of these great, great humorists vanishes every day," he said. "And that's why I thought I'd put some of my drawings on canvas, so it wouldn't vanish like the daily strip."

He was asked about the art of Picasso.

"What a lot of garbage," Capp said. "I once told a group of art lovers that abstract art is the product of the untalented, sold by the unprincipled to the indiscriminating!"

He began a good-natured fume. "To have this stuff revered ... sold at great prices ... and hung on walls!"

He was asked how much his own work on exhibit was selling for.

"Och!" he demurred. He sat back in the Louis XVI armchair of his suite at the lavish Park Lane Hotel overlooking Central Park.

Licence Tag Editing Viewed

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — You never know these days where civil liberties are going to break out next.

At the moment, to cite one unforeseen outcropping, test cases are shaping up to determine whether motorists have the right to edit their license plates.

In one case, a driver in North Carolina was arrested for taping over the slogan "First in Freedom" on his car's tags.

"No Southern state was first in freedom for blacks," he said.

Another case arose in New Hampshire when a couple blocked out the last two words of their state's motto, "Live Free or Die."

They said the part about dying conflicted with their religious beliefs.

Eventually, I presume, the Supreme Court will settle the issue. Meanwhile, protests of this sort could well spread all across the land.

I don't know which states do, or do not, imprint their mottos on their license plates, but I do know that nearly every state motto is potentially controversial.

Take, for example, Georgia's motto, "Wisdom, Justice, Moderation." Motorists in that state who harbor radical views would be loath to circulate that precept on the fronts and backs of their cars.

Their inclination would be to edit out the word "moderation" or change the inscription to read "Wisdom, Justice, Extremism."

Another motto with obvious grounds for contention is found in Maryland — "Manly Deeds, Womanly Words." Can you imagine a women's lib activist driving around with that on her car? Or a militant in the Gay Liberation Movement?

The former would insist on making the deeds at least 50 per cent womanly, and the latter would edit his tags to make both words and deeds apply to homosexuals as well.

Plano 'Cats Sweep Houston 1-0, 3-0

Wildcats Advance to Baseball Quarterfinals

By ED VOSS
Sports Editor

Plano High School's Class AAAA regional baseball playoff win over Houston Spring Branch was a storybook fantasy come true.

Imagine this:
-Plano lost to Houston in the first match of the three-game series 3-0 on May 20. Houston's Mark Thurmond hurled a no-hitter and struckout 10 Plano batters.
-Rain had postponed the Thursday and Friday scheduled games of the series and because of threatening weather, a Plano forfeit to Houston was imminent.
-Because of flooded conditions on Dallas area baseball fields, Plano proposed playing the final two games of the series at Midland or Lubbock. Houston school officials said 'no doing.'

-Over 30 men worked on Friday evening and Saturday morning distributing lime over the University of Plano ballfield to dry up water. A helicopter hovered over the field and helped dry the field to minimum playing conditions.

-A thunderstorm soaked all of Plano except a small section on the northwest quadrant of town which contained the University of Plano ballfield just before gametime.

-Plano's Bill Crabtree hurled a five-hitter, struckout 9 batters and walked four in leading Plano to a ten-inning 1-0 win over Houston in the first game of the doubleheader. Previous to Saturday's game, Crabtree had not gone a full seven innings but against Houston pitched all ten innings.

-In the second game of the doubleheader, Plano's Sammy Bickham Jr. struckout 15 Houston batters and Lee Warren, second baseman, slammed two doubles and a single in leading Plano to a 3-0 win over Houston to cap the series.

Beating Adversity

Plano's regional playoff victory over Houston sends the Wildcats, 28-5, against the winner of Monday night's Dallas Carter Vs. Fort Worth Arlington Heights baseball game.

In beating Houston, Plano beat adversity at its best. Plano spirits were somewhat dampened after losing 3-0 to Houston on May 20. But at gametime Saturday, there was no detection of a possible Plano letdown, only optimism.

In the first game, Plano's Crabtree pitched his best game of the season in going the full ten innings. The senior left-hander had control of the game and Houston was in scoring position only once.

Plano batters got nine hits from Houston's Mitch Medart. Plano was led by rightfielder Jace Wood with a two for two performance, both singles. However, it was Coach Rommie Maxey's decision to substitute Mark Morris for Wood in the ninth inning that ultimately won the game for Plano.

Wood and Morris are equals at playing rightfield, so Coach Maxey substitutes one for the other frequently. Morris was the lead-off batter in the bottom of the tenth inning, and the sandy-haired senior singled to leftfield.

Pitcher Crabtree followed by laying down a perfect bunt that sacrificed Morris to second base. Randy Newton, leftfielder, then hit a ground ball to the third baseman for Plano's second out.

Lee Warren, second baseman, followed with a deep single to leftfield and Morris made a run for homeplate. Houston's leftfielder, Wayne Kovar, hurled the ball to homeplate but Houston catcher Ed Pustejovsky dropped the ball as Morris slid under him to score.

Plano had several outstanding defensive plays that contributed to beating Houston in the first game. Catcher Brian Wilkinson, despite ailing knee and foot problems, played and threw out two Houston runners attempting to steal, plus brokeup a hit and run play for a tag at homeplate on Houston's only scoring opportunity.

Bickham Throws Smoke

Sammy Bickham Jr. was at his best in beating Houston in the second match of the doubleheader. Plano bats pounded Houston's Mark Thurmond eight times in giving Bickham a 3-0 win.

Thurmond pitched against Plano on May 20 and recorded a no-hitter, which made Plano's win over the lefthander even sweeter.

Plano scored in the third inning to get the ball rolling, as first baseman George Hunter singled to the Houston second baseman, who couldn't field the ball because of a bad hop. Hunter was replaced on the basepaths by Bill Vanderlinden, because Hunter lost a contact lense and his sight was obviously hindering him.

Vanderlinden stole second base and awaited a trip to homeplate as John Goldstein and Randy Newton both made outs in their attempts to score him. However, Lee Warren hit a double to rightfield that scored Vanderlinden, but Warren was caught trying to stretch his double into a triple to retire Plano that inning.

Plano scored again in the fourth inning. Bickham led off with a single to rightfield and was advanced to second base on a sacrifice bunt by Wilkinson. Shortstop Brooks Wallace then launched the baseball to deep rightfield and Chris Toler, pinch running for Bickham, made a run for homeplate.

A play was attempted at homeplate but Toler was across in time for Plano's second run.

In the fifth inning, Plano built their lead to three runs. With two outs, Randy Newton doubled to leftfield and scored when Warren hit a deep shot to left centerfield.

The standouts in the second game were Warren and Bickham. Warren, shortest man on the Wildcat squad at 5-2, had two doubles and a single plus two RBIs. Bickham struckout 15 batters and gave his fielders an easy time.

More details of the Plano trip into the quarterfinals will follow in later issues of the Plano Daily Star-Courier.

Bill Crabtree upped his record to 9-1 by hurling a five-hitter and striking out nine batters as Plano beat Houston Spring Branch 1-0 in a ten inning game Saturday. Crabtree had control of the defensive game for Plano all ten innings. (Staff photo by Mike Newman.)

COMMUNITY SCHOOL RECREATION SCHEDULE
"DEVELOPING A COMMUNITY OF PRIDE THROUGH COOPERATION"

REGISTRATION
Registration for the Summer, 1975 Recreation Program will be held at the Plano Recreation Building, 401 West 18th Street, on the following days and times:
Monday	June 2	8:00 PM - 9:00 PM
Tuesday	June 3	8:30 AM - 8:30 PM
Wednesday	June 4	8:30 AM - 8:30 PM
Thursday	June 5	8:30 AM - 8:30 PM
Friday	June 6	8:30 AM - 8:30 PM
Saturday	June 7	9:00 AM - 2:00 PM
Monday	June 9	8:30 AM - 8:30 PM
Tuesday	June 10	8:30 AM - 8:30 PM

All classes require advance registration in person. Most classes have a maximum and minimum enrollment and will be filled on a first come basis. Early registration is advised to insure a place in the desired class. A late registration fee will be charged for those registering after June 10, 1975. No registration will be taken after June 13, 1975.

FEES
All class fees are regulated according to the cost of the instructor for a minimum class enrollment. These are self-sustaining classes operated on a "break even" basis. All fees collected support and finance the program. Some classes require additional fees or supplies.

LATE REGISTRATION FEE
A late fee of $2.00 is charged to persons registering for classes after June 10, 1975. Registration made later than this deadline will be accepted, upon payment of the late fee, until June 13, 1975.
